

Feeling Oppressed? It May Be an Intercessory Prayer Burden

Feeling oppressed? Emotions going haywire? Pain in your body?

It may not be you. It may be an intercessory prayer burden.

You need to learn how to distinguish between your emotions, the Lord's emotions for people and other people's emotions that require intercession. The same is true for cities.

Sometimes you might think you are downright crazy, and few understand you. This video is setting people free!