

Former Satanic Priest Goes From Sitting 'Face to Face With Devil' to Salvation in Jesus

Former satanic priest John Ramirez shares how engulfed he was by the demonic realm. Fear was a common tactic he'd use to hurt people.

"I was 25 years engrossed in darkness and spiritual demonic warfare, putting witchcraft on people, putting tormenting spirits on people," Ramirez says. "One of the tools that I would use is a spirit of fear, release it on people to torment them. ... I used to sit with the devil face to face and get orders from the devil to ... astral project, curse neighborhoods. ... God completely set me free.

" ... It's time to fight, it's time to be armed and dangerous and be a spiritual sniper and bring down fear out of your family, your loved ones, your friends, your church."
