

Francis Chan Issues a Bold Challenge to Christians Everywhere

Francis Chan recently challenged believers to cultivate a deeper love of God in their hearts. In a video posted Wednesday by his ministry, Chan asks a crowd whether their worship and prayer carries the same intensity in their quiet time as it does in big corporate rallies and events. He also sadly notes that many Christians' love for their families, pets and even hobbies is more obvious and visible than their love for God. If you want to challenge yourself to fall deeper in love with God, watch Chan's sermon here.
