

Lance Wallnau Is on Fire and on Target With His Insights on the Culture and This Election

Lance Wallnau is on fire when it comes to garnering social media attention. I know this because a podcast he did with me last spring about Donald Trump was listened to more than any other in the history of the Charisma Podcast Network.

He wrote the cover story for the October issue of Charisma about how he believes God is raising up Donald Trump like He did Cyrus in Isaiah 45. I did a podcast about that two weeks ago, which has become the second most listened to podcast I've done. If you missed it, you can listen to it here.

Today, Lance spoke at a conference in Orlando. It was powerful. Afterward, we got a bite to eat and he told me a video about Trump calling out "liberal" pharisaical evangelicals for blasting him for ungodly behavior 11 years ago, yet overlooking his repentance and also the corruption and the diabolical agenda of the Hillary Clinton campaign. In only a few days, it's been viewed more than 3.5 million times! You will want to watch it. In it he says God can use the jawbone of a donkey, but He can't use a Jezebel.

I'm sickened by the self-righteous, weak-kneed "evangelicals" who want to be liked by the culture they are trying to win so much that they compromise and actually play into the hands of the enemy. Later, I may call out some of them by name after I can research what they said and maybe confront them behind the scenes. They need to be exposed and they need to lose their influence and platforms after being revealed for who they really are.

After my last podcast with Lance, he and I kept talking as friends and what he was saying was so good I asked him if I could turn on the recorder to give “the rest of the story.” You’ll want to listen to that podcast here called “God is Raising Up Trump with Lance Wallnau Part 2” on the Charisma Podcast Network. Then share this newsletter with friends and on social media.

In other newsletters, I’ve written about the article Pastor Jim Garlow of Skyline Church in San Diego wrote two months ago that we headlined: “If You’re on the Fence About Your Vote, This Pastor Clarifies How the Very Future of America Is at Stake.” Since then, it’s gone viral, and today it passed the 3.5 million mark in terms of shares on Facebook.

Someone told me the article is like an apologetic for voting for Donald Trump when you don’t like him as a person. A friend told me today she wasn’t going to vote for Trump until she read the article. She realized this is not about personalities; it’s about issues, and the platforms of the two parties are as different as night and day, especially from a biblical point of view.

In this podcast, Lance talks about how America cannot stand 48 months more months of the downward spiral this nation has been in for the past few decades—especially in the past eight years.

When we met today, we talked about a quick e-book Lance wrote called God’s Chaos Candidate I ordered it today, and it’s fascinating reading not only about Trump but also about the trends in our culture and the agenda of the progressive left. When I checked, it was No. 118 of all books sells.

Please take advantage of these materials and help us get out the word. It’s possible that this race will be so close that it will be determined by how Bible-believing Christians vote.
