

Someone Is Following You

In a classic hymn, Charles Wesley wrote: "To serve the present age, my calling to fulfill. O may it all my pow'rs engage to do my Master's will." When we give our lives to God fully, we offer our gifts to serve Him and our generation. There is always someone observing our conduct and our level of commitment to God.

Heart Issue

Are you hesitating to embrace your role as a woman of spiritual influence, thinking it's too soon? Obey God and be accountable to Him for what He has given you.

Prayer

Father, once more we relinquish our rights to ourselves, embracing every opportunity to touch a life and make a difference. Empower us to be examples of Your grace in this generation. Amen.
