

Surrounding Our Schools With Prayer

There is a mandate before God's women to storm heaven with prayer for the protection of our children and our nation. The challenges kids face today in school and at home is cause for fervent intercession. Resist the temptation to become anxious or fearful about your child's future. Instead believe God will demonstrate His power and love through us as never before.

Read Deut. 31:6, Ps. 37:39-40, Ps. 121:1-8, Ps. 124:1-8, Is. 33:6; 43:1-3, 2 Tim. 1:7

Heart Issue

Pray that the hearts of adults will be turned toward children and teens. Ask God to reveal your responsibilities as a mature member of the body of Christ.

Prayer

Father, we want to offer hope and truth to this generation of young people. Enable us to look beyond the externals and see a soul in need of Your salvation and love. Help us to recognize the warning signs when a young person we know is in trouble. Show us how and when to intervene. Let us overcome any fear we feel with Your perfect love. Amen.

Brenda J. Davis is former editor of SpiritLed Woman magazine and acquisitions editor of Creation House.