

Fun Family-Friendly Netflix Film 'Yes Day' Portrays Sacrificial Love

Green, blue, red and orange water balloons—30,000 of them—launched with full force and without a stunt double. Jennifer Garner shares in an interview with CBN about the fun of filming such a scene for Yes Day, a newly released family-friendly comedy on Netflix.

In Yes Day, inspired by Amy Krouse Rosenthal's children's book, with an underlying theme of sacrificial love, parents must oblige their children's wishes for one day.
