

Gabe Ahn: God Wants to Deliver You From Suicide, Mental Illness

Pastor Gabe Ahn believes the church needs to start having serious discussions about suicide, depression and mental illness in the church. He says it's a problem that comes with two components—the spiritual and the physical—and that the Lord put it on his heart to preach about after the deaths of Anthony Bourdain and Kate Spade. Ahn begins talking about suicide, anxiety and depression around the eight-minute mark in the video.
