

God Calls Us to Live by Miracles

“I don’t just believe in miracles. I live by them,” Pastor Mike Signorelli boldly proclaims in one of his latest teachings. Miracles are not just an event at his church but a lifestyle. Today, the church brands those who believe in miracles as radical. But a lifestyle of miracles is available to all who believe in Jesus.

Signorelli challenges us to look at the books of Exodus, Deuteronomy, Numbers and Joshua. There we see that it wasn’t just one or two miracles that took the Israelites out of Egypt and into the promised land but a lifestyle of miracles! We see it in Moses before Pharaoh, in the parting of the Red Sea, manna raining down from heaven and more.

Pastor Mike then quotes Matthew 6:22-23, which tells us that if our eye is full of light, so are our bodies; but if our eyes are full of darkness, then so are our bodies. Our vision sets our lives. Too many Christians walk around with lives set by a fear-filled vision instead of a faith-filled vision! When you get your vision right, you get your life right, and you’ll be able to live the lifestyle of miracles available to you!
