

Grammy Winner Brings Worship, Prayer to Prison

Zach Williams performed his worship song “Survivor” live at Harding Prison near Nashville, Tennessee. In video from the show, the Grammy-winning Christian artist prays beforehand, “This is an honor and privilege to get to come in and share what You’ve done in our lives with these inmates and hopefully win somebody for the kingdom today. Touch their hearts. Touch their lives in some way, God. In Jesus’ name, Amen.” Watch the performance here.
