

Greg Laurie Describes the Antichrist in Detail

Evangelist Greg Laurie described the Antichrist in detail during his sermon on Sunday.

“When this man emerges on the scene, he may not be what you would expect. He will not be dressed in head to toe in black, with glowing red eyes and steam coming out of him, and the Darth Vader theme song playing when he walks into a room,” Laurie says.

Laurie warns: “He is going to do things that no world leader has ever done before. He is going to solve the Middle East conflict, and he is going to rid the world at least temporarily of terrorism. He is going to be hailed as the greatest peace talker that ever lived.”

But then, the Antichrist’s true motives shall be revealed.
