

Hillsong Live Changes Name to Reflect Worshipful Style

Hillsong Church recently announced that this year's live worship album will release under the name Hillsong Worship rather than Hillsong Live. Hillsong Worship continues to resource the local church with songs that come out of the church's congregations worldwide.

Hillsong Worship will release No Other Name on July 1, coinciding with its annual Hillsong Conference in Sydney, Australia.

"The church that I see is a worshiping church whose songs reflect such a passion for Christ that others sense His magnificence and power," said Brian Houston, founding pastor of Hillsong Church. "A distinct sound that emanates from a healthy church, contagious in spirit—creating music that resounds from villages and tribes to great cities and nations."

Hillsong Worship will be back in the United States performing late this summer as well as for the 2nd Annual Hillsong Conference in New York City, which will be held Oct. 16-18 at The Theater at Madison Square Garden.
