

Holy Spirit Invades the White House as Worship Leaders Call Upon the Name of Jesus

CLICK HERE for our interview with Sanctus Real.

What a powerful name, indeed!

Contemporary Christian music artists including Kari Jobe, Danny Gokey, Tauren Wells, We Are Messengers, Citizen Way, Sanctus Real and more called upon the name of Jesus at the White House this week.

View this post on Instagram

Wow. What a day. Had the honor to go the White House for a #FaithBriefing with key administration officials and faith leaders. Specifically, to hear about faith initiatives that are happening. Great things are taking place whether the media tells us or not! Let's just say that I'm leaving Washington, D.C. stirred, hopeful, convicted and informed with TRUTH. • God is surely moving in this nation and through His Church. Let's be a people that are not letting a day go by without praying for our President and this incredible administration. Thank you @paulamichellewhite for all you do and for helping making this happen. It's truly powerful to watch and I'm moved beyond words.

A post shared by DOM (@dominicshahbon) on Nov 13, 2018 at 7:31pm PST

View this post on Instagram

I witnessed a truly special moment today as our Christian music community shared a time of worship and prayer in the White House. #faithbriefing

A post shared by Matt Hammitt (@matthammitt) on Nov 13, 2018 at 9:54pm PST