

Honor All of Your Fathers This Weekend

As you celebrate fathers this weekend, don't forget to bless your spiritual fathers.

Who impacts your spiritual life?

Who speaks into your life?

Who shares God's word with you and helps you walk it out?

Who accepts you for who you are but doesn't judge you?

Who encourages you to come up higher?

Drop them a note or card and remind them of what they mean to you.

Honor all of your fathers.

SPECIAL FATHER'S DAY OFFER**

Give a father you care about a gift to help him build his personal brand for less than the price of a good tie.

Give him 49 minutes with Dr. Steve Greene to develop a clear three-step path to a powerful personal brand.

He will learn how to:

- Write a personal brand statement
- Develop a brand strategy
- Develop content to communicate his brand every day
- Write it. Speak it. Be it.
- Become known for his talents and gifts.

- Learn about five tools he probably isn't using to build his brand
- Explode his circle of influence

He will also receive a written summary of the content along with a "3 Step Path to a Powerful Personal Brand."

This is absolutely a limited-time offer because Dr. Greene has limited time. He has room for 10 fathers. That's it for this offer.

What father has influenced your life? Give him 49 minutes with Dr. Greene for $49.

This father's day, give the gift of transformation. Hire Dr. Greene to help your father transform his brand.
