

How God Broke Down Barriers in the Heart of Sin City

Every Home for Christ took its successful international evangelism program to Las Vegas, Nevada. On the first day of ministry, they made no progress. Their success was blocked at every turn. Before the second day, the team prayed for God's favor—and that's when everything changed.