

How Not to Witness to Your Friends

Have you tried relentlessly to win your unsaved friends to Jesus but to no avail? You tell them His love is unconditional, that He died for their sins, and that they too can have a personal relationship with Him. But in the end, they seem more annoyed by your efforts than troubled about where they will spend eternity. There is a way to share the message of salvation with your friends so they won't be turned off. To discover how, watch the video below.
