

How Strong Is Your Shield of Faith?

Believing by faith takes a specific action on the part of believers.

When fiery arrows from demonic sources are launched in your direction, is the oil of anointing covering you? Will you be pierced and stumble along the way, or is there something about you that repels these evil assignments? This video from Mike Signorelli reminds the body of Christ that living faith out loud causes the enemy to flee and stirs the heart of the Father. Watch now!