

How These Papal Prophecies Tie Into the New Age

Sixty-two prominent Catholic theologians charged Pope Francis with heresy in September, eschatologist Tom Horn says.

Other conservative Catholics believe Francis will give rise to catechism 675, which addresses the role the church would play to give rise to the false prophets and antichrist and, “The fear that the Vatican could become a machine of the New World Order under the man of sin.”

So what’s next? Watch the video to see.