

How to Conquer the Principality of Fear During the COVID-19 Chaos

Many across the globe are petrified of COVID-19 and what it will do to our nations and economies. But is there a spiritual side to this fear that most of us are missing?

Prophetic minister Kathy DeGraw says the principality of fear is hovering over the earth right now, using the coronavirus to enslave people.

You may know Kathy because she often writes great content about spiritual warfare, deliverance and prophecy for and . She's also the host of the Prophetic Spiritual Warfare podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network. The podcast started this past August and already has over 313,000 downloads. Not only that, but she's also sharing her spiritual insight and expertise through e-courses available at .

I recently interviewed Kathy about the revelation regarding fear that she received from the Lord.

"Fear is just running rampant all over the world right now," she says. "The Lord showed me a principality of fear, and everyone is just buying into that—fear in times of uncertainty, fear of getting the coronavirus, but also fear of the unknown. And we also have fear that has just plagued us in our everyday lives for years."

She tells me that spirits of infirmity and destruction are very real and very active in our world today. After all, in John 10:10, Jesus said, "The thief does not come, except to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly."

“We know that disease does not come from God,” Kathy says. “God is a loving God who wants to heal us. God is a loving God who wants us to prosper in all things and wants us to go forward in the abundance of love and joy and health and well-being. And the devil comes in disguise as that thief in the night, and we need to annihilate him with the powers that we have, the kingdom of God in us to combat that through prayer, through speaking out, through decreeing out, through controlling our emotions and fear so that we’re not feeding the fiery furnace of this disease that’s going on.”

Kathy dives deeper into how Christians can overcome this spirit of fear in her latest Charisma Course, called How to Conquer Fear.
