

How You Can Cultivate Discernment in Times of Deception

Now is a time for self-examination in the light of God's Word.

So many are being led by feelings instead of godly discernment concerning the events in this nation.

We must stop and question the information being planted into our hearts and minds. The enemy doesn't reveal himself as bold, brash and blowing smoke from his nostrils. His primary weapon is subtle deception. We must investigate the other side of the story. We cannot place opinion above seeking the biblical truth.

For more on how you can build a discerning spirit to reveal the truth, watch this video.