

How Your Church or Organization Can Host a Screening of Jonathan Cahn's 'The Harbingers of Things to Come'

In 2011, Jonathan Cahn's first book, The Harbinger, exploded onto the world scene. Now, more than 10 years later, Cahn has released "The Harbingers of Things to Come," a hard-hitting documentary loaded with warnings for America.

Fathom Events reports that nearly 100,000 people saw "The Harbingers of Things to Come" during its limited theatrical release over two nights around the nation last week. It's a prophetic film that reveals a mystery that is determining America's future—and yours.

In The Harbinger, Cahn revealed an ancient mystery behind everything from 9/11 to the economy, to the housing boom, to the war in Iraq, to the 2008 crisis on Wall Street. God used The Harbinger to send a prophetic message on which America's future hangs.

But that wasn't the end. Since The Harbinger came out, what the book foreshadowed has been coming true. So in early 2020, Cahn began to write the long-awaited sequel, The Harbinger II: The Return, and soon after, COVID-19 began to paralyze America.

The shaking of which Cahn had warned in The Harbinger had begun. And now, the documentary not only tells the mystery of the harbingers, but it also shows it to you. And finally, at the end of his new film, Cahn opens up for the first time to reveal a prophetic mystery he's been unable to reveal for over 20 years.

"The Harbingers of Things to Come" was in theaters across America on May 12 and May 19. Now it's airing in churches and organizations nationwide through ticketed events through June 13, 2022.

The Biblical Template

The Harbinger revealed nine signs that appeared in the last days of ancient Israel, which are now reappearing on American soil. These harbingers are not marking the end of judgment but the beginning of judgment. This biblical template of national judgment begins with the lifting of the nation's hedge of protection. An enemy makes a strike on the land. It's a wake-up call for the people to return to God.

For America, the beginning of national judgment came on Sept. 11, 2001. In this biblical template of judgment, a nation is given a space of time, a window in which it can either come back to God or head for judgment. If it doesn't turn back, then greater shakings will happen. In America, it's happening now. The Harbinger II—and this documentary—reveal how the mystery has never stopped. In the film, Jonathan shares the following revelations:

The City on the Hill

In 1630, John Winthrop led the Puritans' exodus to the new world. He dedicated our nation to the purposes of God, founded after the pattern of ancient Israel. Winthrop said, "We must consider that we shall be as a city on the hill. Thus stands the cause between God and us. We are entered into covenant with Him for this work."

Then Winthrop gave this prophetic warning, "If we shall deal falsely with our God ... If our hearts shall turn away, so that we will not obey, but shall be seduced and worship other Gods, our pleasure, profits, and serve them ..." If America followed after God, it would be blessed, but if it turned away from God, it would be cursed.

The Day of the Watchman

Two years before 9/11, several believers gathered at the Statue of Liberty, knowing in the Spirit that a terrorist attack was coming to America. That day would produce two exact prophetic images of what would take place two years later (Jer. 4:19-20; 6:17; Ezek. 33:3).

The Parasha

Every sabbath, a passage of scripture is read and chanted by Jews in synagogues around the world. The scripture is called the Parasha. On the last sabbath day before 9/11, the scripture that was chanted across the world by the Jewish people was Deuteronomy 28:24, 29, 49-50, 52. These scriptures reveal the signs of judgment and tell of the destruction a nation faces for turning away from God.

The Island

When John Winthrop spoke of a City on a Hill, that name would stand not only for a civilization that would rise from Massachusetts Bay but for an actual city. Winthrop would not only lay the foundation for that city but also go on to become its governor. That City on a Hill still exists today; it is known as Boston. Boston was the first city on a hill. Where did 9/11 begin? It started in Boston.

Winthrop had a place he called his own, an island off the coast of Boston where he planted a garden, orchard and vineyard. It would become known as Governor's Island, from which he would gaze out at the city upon a hill and pray for it.

But what happened to this Island? It would eventually become Logan airport. This is the exact place where 9/11 began. The planes took off from this airport and headed toward ground zero—the very place where America was dedicated to God. This was the same place where John Winthrop gave his prophetic warning that if this nation turned away from God, His blessing would be removed. {eoa}
