"I AM AMERICA" SINGER KRISTA BRANCH TO PERFORM AT LIBERTY FORUM FEB. 25

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (Feb. 21) –

Singer Krista Branch, who gained notoriety when her underground Tea Party hit,

"I Am America," went viral on YouTube, will perform at the Chattanooga Tea Party's Liberty Forum event Saturday, February 25, at Abba's House in Hixson.

The event will run from 1 to 4 p.m. with Krista performing a "mini-concert" prior to the start as well as singing during the event.

Krista has sung at tea party rallies and concerts around the nation and appeared on "Fox &

Friends," "The O'Reilly Factor" and other programs. Her song, "I Am America," was the official song of the Herman Cain campaign.

Krista developed her love for music at a young age, singing at a small church in east Texas. Krista now lives in Nashville, Tennessee where she is working on an upcoming album. She takes pride in being a devoted wife, mother, patriot and woman of deep faith.

In addition to Krista, the event will feature GOP presidential candidate Rick Santorum and local, state and federal candidates and officials, who will address their vision for each of the different levels of government. The CTP will also offer refreshments to celebrate the tea party movement's 3rd Anniversary.

Although there will be no cost to attend the event, donations will be welcomed to help defray costs.

The CTP also asks attendees to bring food donations, which will be collected for the Chattanooga Area Food Bank.

The Chattanooga Tea Party is a non-partisan grassroots organization seeking to educate and inform its members and the public at large of the fundamental issues and struggles our country is facing. We are committed to energizing voters to become engaged in the process of solving the nation's problems.
