

‘I Confess You as Lord’: Agnostic Teens Turn to Christ in Stunning Street Conversion

An American evangelistic ministry has released a powerful video of two British teenagers coming to Christ on the streets of Bristol, England. The pair, who were keen to engage with the American preacher, said they were self-described “agnostics” but “open to the idea” of faith.

“Does anyone here want to pray for God to save them?” asked evangelist and Director of Torch of Christ Ministries, Phillip Blair, during an outreach event earlier this week.

As he turned around, Blair was met by the two teenage boys, Joe and Matthias, who, after a brief yet searching discussion, decided they wanted to give their lives to Jesus.

Click here to read the rest of this story from our content partners at Faithwire.