

If We're Honest

Francesca Battistelli (Warner Nashville)

If We're Honest hits stores three years after Francesca Battistelli released her sophomore album, Hundred More Years.

The new album is set to be her most intimate to date, with the "Write Your Story" single already sailing up the charts, its pop feel seamlessly delivering an invitation for Christ to write His story upon the open book of our hearts.

"When the Crazy Kicks In" showcases the upbeat, soul fusion laced throughout Battistelli's albums while telling the relatable story of needing God when everything goes awry.

With numerous awards to her name, Battistelli has become the best-selling Christian new artist in the past decade. She'll kick off a spring tour with Sidewalk Prophets, Natalie Grant, Jason Gray and others to bring Mark Burnett and Roma Downey's new feature film, Son of God, to life with sight and sound.

—Felicia Abraham