

IHOPKC Leader: We Are in a Kairos Hour of Crisis and Glory

Corey Russell, a director and senior leader at the International House of Prayer, says this year's Onething Conference will be different than past years. Russell believes this is a critical season for the church, in which the hour of both crisis and glory is drawing near. He explains why in this video.