

IHOPKC Puts an Original Spin on Classic Christmas Carol

The International House of Prayer's worship team put an original spin on the song "Joy to the World," turning it into a rousing live song called "You've Come to Save."

Brenton Dowdy, who is singing in the video, says he used to sing the song at the church he was discipled at in Texas. Dowdy says his worship pastor at the time, Jeremy Kirles, primarily wrote the chorus but never recorded it, and Dowdy is now sharing it with the world.

Watch it here, and for more information on the upcoming Onething conference, visit