

In 2020, It's No Surprise the Holidays Came Early

If it seems like Christmas is coming early this year, that's because it is! You may have noticed some of your neighbors putting up their Christmas trees and lights well before Thanksgiving. Well, apparently this "early Christmas" celebration is a thing, and it may be just what we all need.

Let's face it. 2020 has been tough. From COVID-19 to no high school graduations or proms, to just "plain ol' cabin fever." It's no wonder many of us can't wait to usher in the Yuletide joy a little sooner this year.

For hairdresser Alexis Bailey that meant putting up her decorations and not one but four Christmas trees two weeks earlier than normal.

"To me, Christmas is the best time of year, and so I'm like, 'Let's just go ahead and bring it in,'" she told CBN News. "Let's get things moving. Let's get the holiday spirit going. And so for me, that's why I wanted to bring it in because I just felt like we needed that joy."

Read the rest of the story from our content partners at CBN News and watch the full video here.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright The Christian Broadcasting Network, Inc., All rights reserved.