

Influencer Encourages Christians to Follow Isaiah Saldivar's Powerful Example

YouTuber Traci Coston is encouraging more Christians to rise up in the same kind of boldness as Isaiah Saldivar to share the Gospel and see the captives set free.

"I just saw that Christian YouTuber Isaiah Saldivar hit 1 million subscribers on YouTube, which is huge," Coston says. "He was one of the first people on YouTube to kind of plow the way for other Christian YouTubers."

Coston notes the miracles, signs and wonders that have come out of Saldivar's ministry, including a mother deciding to keep her baby after watching one of his videos.

"What I just saw in the comments of this post blew my mind. This lady said she had her phone in, was about to make the call to have an abortion when she saw a clip that Isaiah posted about abortion, and it changed her mind and her baby is now about to turn two years old."

Now, Coston is hoping that more people of faith will take Saldivar's lead and boldly share the message of the gospel across social media platforms.

“Where are all the other Christians out there who love Jesus, who don’t want people to go to hell, who aren’t afraid to get online and speak the truth to people?” she asks. “Because Jesus is coming back, and someday it will be too late for these people to hear the gospel message.”
