

Intercessors, Could You Be the Gate in the Gap?

God said something to Ezekiel that I have heard over and over—and you’ve probably heard it too.

But while I was on my Mornings with the Holy Spirit prayer broadcast, I got a new revelation about it as it relates to intercessors—gatekeepers—in any given city. Let’s read the verse in Ezekiel 22:30-31:

“So I sought for a man among them who would make a wall, and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one. So in my fierce anger, I will punish the Israelites for what they have done, and they will know that I am furious. I, the Lord, have spoken” (Ezek. 22:30, NKJV).

Intercessors, you could be the gate in the gap. What does that mean? Let this video encourage you. {eo}
