

International House of Prayer Says 'Reset' Is Coming, 'Stay Tuned'

The International House of Prayer will hold its annual Onething conference in December 2018. But the event's official website teases "Special announcement by Mike Bickle. Reset launching in October," combined with a promotional video (embedded here) that talks about the importance of a corporate "reset." What does this all mean? Let us know your predictions in the comments.