

Is Jesus God?

Mainstream culture is waging war against the church and trying to cancel Christianity from American society. In the face of this intense opposition, our Christian faith is anchored onto our willingness to answer this question: "Is Jesus God?"

This simple question, as basic as it may seem, actually serves as a gateway to understanding the gospel and the eternal mysteries of God. In this new episode of Truth Talks, Pastor Ché Ahn affirms, "If you want to know what God is like, look at Jesus."

This episode continues Pastor Ché's "Knowing Jesus" series, pulling powerful insights from the Gospel of John. In the New Testament, the four Gospels reveal Jesus as God but the book of John (written by "the apostle of love") highlights Jesus' identity as the Son of God with the strongest focus.

The Trinity is a mystery that has stood the test of time but Pastor Ché shares eye-opening revelations that help explain the triune nature of God. By looking at practical examples in creation, you will be able to understand deeper, theological truths about who God is. Get ready to go deeper in your faith as you discover more of who Jesus is today!
