

Israel Christian Media Summit Garners Worldwide Media Coverage

The Israel government press office launched its fourth Christian Media Summit on which, due to COVID-19, was held as a virtual summit. It was without a doubt the most successful social media event ever hosted in the state of Israel, with more than 7 million viewers on Facebook alone.

Prime Minister Netanyahu, President Rivlin, U.S. Ambassador to Israel David Friedman and leaders from throughout Israel and worldwide participated. The event was hosted by Mike Evans at the Friends of Zion Communications Center.

Nitzan Chen, director of the Israel government press office, said, "Close to 10 million views attest to the strong bond between Israel and the Christian world. We look forward to hosting the fifth Christian media summit physically in Jerusalem next year, with a wider and broader participation of our Christian colleagues in the media."

Catch some behind-the-scenes footage of the summit here.