

It's Time for This Entire Generation to Accept Billy Graham's Mantle

Come February, charismatic leaders from nearly every stream of Christianity will join together to pass Billy Graham's mantle on to this generation.

YWAM, Dunamis Movement, Christ for all Nations, Jesus Image, Circuit Riders, Lifestyle Christianity and more have partnered together for The Send.

The movement has been marked by prophecy since the Lord planted the original seeds years ago.

"It would be an outbreak of signs and wonders and miracles, and the gospel would be the center point or the central message of the stadium," says YWAM's Andy Byrd, who was part of The Send's inception.

"Out of these gatherings, the passions, the zeal and the sense of responsibility that Billy Graham had would fall on a whole generation," Byrd says.

Now, the time has come. Byrd shared all the details with Charisma in a podcast interview.
