

It's Time to End the Liberal Leftist Movement

The leftists hate our Independence Day July 4 celebrations. Yesterday Facebook and Google censored some pictures of American flags and portraits of American heroes and fallen soldiers.

They put the darkest spin possible on these national holidays. They even display anger toward President Trump for wanting to celebrate the Fourth of July. My brain freezes on that one.

The writing is on the wall. We have less than two years to buy up more time for a national miracle and the restoration of America's destiny. This is not overreach or a hyper-dramatic statement. It is reality.

The leftists heap disdain on the sacrifice of heroes. They rail against every iota of the American patriotism. Most of all, they lie about our history, our Founding Fathers, and they deny the role of Christianity in the founding of our nation. They've reached the point of desperation and will do anything for votes in 2020.

For example, at this writing, we are witnessing a human tragedy at our Southern border. Dr. James Dobson made a trip down there recently and said this about it:

This is all happening because politicians have created a system that turns these migrants into political pawns. "This is the system set up by a liberal Congress and judges. It is a well-known fact that President Obama's administration established many of these unworkable policies, and Congress is steadfastly unwilling to change them. Every effort at reform has been overridden or ignored. It is set in stone. Democrats want massive numbers of immigrants who will someday become voters. Some Republicans support the policies because they want cheap labor for agricultural purposes. The border could be fixed, but there are very few in authority who seem to care."

Doesn't that just make your righteous blood boil? South Africa is experiencing a national crisis due to this same kind of idiocy. The idiots are the people who allow it.

In political jargon, "useful idiot" is a term for people perceived as propagandists for a cause whose goals they are not fully aware of, and who are used cynically by the leaders of the cause. The leftists are successfully brainwashing the "useful idiots" for their globalism cause.

Globalism isn't just a word. And this border crisis is not just another random event.

Many people do not realize that the primary goal of globalism is the breaking down of strong, sovereign nations, followed by a global catastrophe. A global government cannot be established while America, Europe, Russia, China, India and other countries survive as they are today. The plan is to break things down at the top with Western nations, especially America.

America is the world's biggest consumer. As long as our economy is functioning, the rest of the world's industrial nations also do well. If they break down America, all the other nations will begin to crumble, and the support nations will have nowhere to sell their raw materials.

In many ways, present-day America reminds me of the sinking of the Titanic when musicians played their final song before succumbing to their death. We've had so many opportunities to right the ship, but we keep drinking the vile Kool-Aid that our wicked politicians and corrupt and unprincipled media are serving us while puncturing the ship with more holes.

Indeed, we've become a ship of fools. We've had plenty of reasons to do something different, but instead we've defiantly said no to righteousness and national sovereignty at nearly every turn. Groaning always increases under the rule of wicked politicians.

President Trump is not our Savior, but his election victory in 2016 tells me that the people of this country have had enough of the establishment. They are waking up to the global liberal agenda and many don't want it. For clear evidence, look at the large turnouts and great excitement at Trump's rallies.

America at a Crossroads

"When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people mourn" (Prov. 29:2).

In 2008 and 2012, millions of professing Christians either voted for Obama or did not vote at all. Professing Christians who voted for such a wicked and evil man (until he is saved, that is what he is) still need to repent because it was his administration that opened the door wide to greater filth, evil, hatred, division, violence and perversion in our nation:

- You can't vote that way anymore without being an ally to Satan and evil.
- You can no longer wink at sin and endorse wicked politicians.
- You can't remain silent while full term baby killing is now made legal.
- You can't stick your nose up at God, whom the Democratic National Committee has rejected.
- You can't continue to endorse darkness, death and destruction—open borders, sanctuary cities, abortion, anti-Israel agendas, same-sex marriage, socialism and globalism.

Stop sowing to the wind if you want to stop reaping the whirlwind.

If you did it ignorantly, there is mercy, but if willingly, you're on the wrong side of God's righteousness and justice.

Lack of Character and Discernment Is the Issue

The problem is a large segment of professing American Christians lack character and discernment, and they endorse the same.

John Wooden observed, "Your character is what you really are. Your reputation is only what others think you are."

The condition of one's heart colors both poor discernment and the failure to see things as they really exist.

Many have a reputation of being someone great in public, but who they are privately and at home is who they really are. Many need to repent because their walk does not match their talk. Hypocrisy is the church's subtle leaven.

So many of those who profess Jesus Christ continually vote for the Democratic Party. How can you justify that when they are now riding fully with Satan? Today, I dare call them "the demonic party."

Stop voting for criminals to fill governmental positions in our land. How can so many have such a high tolerance for the corruption and tyranny they represent? It's pure madness and defies logic.

Godless Hollywood and the snake-oiled media will keep endorsing evil. It's about time you stop believing their lies.

Why do you even give the time of day to Trump haters and networks like CNN who lie continually and poison you with fake news?

The Root Is Hypocrisy

Again, the problem is in the church world. We have too many hypocrites who tell us they love Jesus out of one side of their mouth while casting votes for those who represent the devil's agenda. Please educate yourselves.

When you vote for any politician, be it senator, governor, mayor, congressman or representative who is a baby killer, a God hater, an enemy of Israel and pervert-promoter—among many other evils, you are one giant-sized hypocrite. You are serving the devil and not the living God.

When you're ruled by materialism, you don't have a moral compass. When you believe the lying media, your judgment is blinded. When you're a slave to man, God is not your master. When you don't fear God, you have no discernment. Then the lines become blurred between the holy and the profane, the clean and unclean, and the good and evil.

This is the problem in America. Elections mirror who we are as a nation and identify the lack of a true moral base in our culture and a large majority of the professing church.

When you, as a professing Christian, are swimming with the tide of pop culture and following the most popular TV preachers who cannot call homosexuality a sin, who cannot speak of the cross and the blood, who will never say the word "repent," who endorsed Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton for president, who are motivated by publicity and popularity and earthly gain, you are in the devil's grip.

Electing wicked and evil politicians for president is nearly equivalent to absolving Satan from his sins and letting him into the White House to rule our nation.

Appealing to Logic

If you are a professing Christian, why do you keep endorsing wicked men who are full of greed, have no love for the truth, and no fear of God (see Ex. 18:21)?

Set aside Christian conscience for a moment, and let's just use a little logic.

- If you are a veteran, in the military or closely related to a military member, why are you voting for a party whose secretary of state left those men to die in Benghazi and had the nerve to lie about it over and over again? They called for help, but the help was told to stand down.
- If you have a factory job, why are you endorsing a party whose members supported the Trans-Pacific Partnership? Before Trump, factory workers were being laid off because jobs were going overseas. So many unfavorable deals were made with China. Now Democrats are welcoming open borders and illegals to get benefits to be paid with your tax money.
- If you are poor, why do you endorse the Democratic party, when most of them support Wall Street and all the big banks? Big banks keep poor people poor through destroying the poor man's credit by allowing medical bills and collections to affect your credit scores so you can pay higher interest rates than the rich—taking much of the little money you earn.
- If you are a woman, how can you endorse the Democratic Party when scandals of past presidents such as Bill Clinton's rape victims were swept under the rug, including a little girl who was raped? His wife, Hillary, acting as an accomplice, defended the rapist and then laughed about it later, knowing he was guilty. Have you ever thought of how forgiving our nation was of President Clinton's sexual escapades done in the White House with that intern while being so unforgiving of President Trump's same type of sins done years ago while out of office? Such hypocrisy!
- If you carry a gun or believe in the Constitution, how can you affiliate with a party who wants to eliminate the NRA, take your guns, and abolish the second amendment?

- If you even breathe, why would you be affiliated and endorse the Democratic party who murder the most innocent?

“America will never be destroyed from the outside. If we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves.” –Abraham Lincoln

Civil War, Persecution Imminent Unless Things Change

And you who say God is still in control, save your speech. They said the same thing in Hitler's day when he was killing 6 million Jews. God is in control of those who have given Him control. He is in control of those who have submitted to Him. To be silent, passive and neutral now is to be an enemy of God.

Unless a nation of useful idiots wake up and come to their senses, we are headed for a civil war. There are far too many unreasonable and wicked men within our shores and in positions of authority.

Barring supernatural intervention brought on by earnest prayer, sincere repentance and the mercy of God, the church may eventually have to go underground, at least in some states. California is now trying to make the Christian counseling of homosexuals and transgenders a crime. If this passes (many believe it won't, at least this time), the next step would be to make the Bible illegal. But you know what? That may not be such a bad thing, because then curious young people may actually start reading it. And since the fastest-growing church in the world is still the underground church of China and now Iran, where the Bible is condemned, hope remains.

Persecution tends to bring out the best of every church and every Christian. Persecution tends to separate the real Christian from the false, the goats from the sheep, the tares from the wheat and the good fish from the bad fish. And that's a good thing. We don't have much persecution that is testing us yet in our nation. Most believers think it's bold and fearless just to call abortion and homosexuality a sin. I'm sorry but that is not considered a heroic act. It only proves how wimpy much of the church has become.

So what can the American church start doing now in this season of reprieve and opportunity?

Start preaching a biblical gospel that actually delivers people from ignorance and evil and strengthens their foundation of truth and righteousness. Stop all the self-esteem and success-in-life talks. Preach the Word with fire in your belly.

Start getting excited about the things that excite Jesus like the actual gospel of the kingdom and His commission to make disciples. Stop getting excited over emotional experiences and stimuli that tickles your soul but are no threat to the kingdom of darkness.

Quit listening to celebrity preachers who tout their titles of "apostle," "prophet" and "bishop" and always seem to have a "word from God" that came from their latest conversation with an angel or a visit to heaven. Who of us is not tired of hearing the latest formula for activating blessings?

Let the uncompromisingly righteous band together and bond together as never before. Be strengthened and be emboldened. Act like it's now or never to save the Titanic. Brace yourselves. The Democrats will go crazy, and all hell will break loose if Trump wins a second term.

For those who are kingdom-minded and eternity-minded, our best days are still ahead. Let us seize the opportunity of a lifetime. We can save the church and the nation. But understand that if we finally preach the real gospel and Christians still vote Democrat, then they didn't really repent.

It is now that the nation's "useful idiots" may finally awaken when they realize that the Democratic party and the RINOS (Republicans In Name Only) are the ones who are putting holes in the mighty Titanic in their attempts to sink it.

Onward, Christian soldiers. {eoa}
