

It's Time to Step Into the Adventure-Filled Life of Following Jesus

What would happen if you dreamed big and let God take control of your life? Do you ever wonder what your life would be like if you could let go of what the world has to offer and live for something greater than yourself?

In LiveBeyond: A Radical Call to Surrender and Serve on the Charisma Podcast Network, you'll experience the stories of Dr. David and Laurie Vanderpool, two missionaries who left their comfortable life in the United States to live beyond themselves to serve God's people. The Vanderpools gave up everything in service of God. They gave up a successful medical practice, their home, their family farm and so much more to move to Haiti to serve.

No one should go through their life wondering if God loves them and if God has a plan for them.

When you let go of material belongings and choose to join your loving Father on an adventure-filled mission, you will begin to experience all of the goodness God has for you in this life and the life to come. {eoa}
