

Jessica Simpson Belts Out Beautiful Rendition of 'Amazing Grace' During TV Interview

Pop star Jessica Simpson broke out into a beautiful rendition of "Amazing Grace" during a recent interview on TODAY, noting that the powerful hymn is about "walking through fear."

READ ALSO: Check Out 's Powerful Prayer Guide

"It's about walking through fear and about it being OK to be afraid," Simpson told host Hoda Kotb. "And the other side of fear is what's so beautiful—that's when you get the reward."

Watch Simpson sing "Amazing Grace" at the 7-minute mark:

Simpson has been making headlines for openly revealing some difficult details about her past struggles with sexual abuse, marriage and alcohol.

"I had started a spiral," she told Kotb, noting that she was drinking constantly until 2017. "And I couldn't catch up with myself."

Simpson said she quit drinking after an intoxicated 2017 Halloween celebration left her disconnected and not present with her kids.

It was a wake-up call that led Simpson to become sober and to start working with a therapist.

WATCH: See Powerful Faith and Family-Friendly Content on

"I just realized that I had to surrender," she said.

Prayers up to Simpson on her journey forward. Want more inspiration? You can read daily stories of faith and inspiration over on The Pure Flix Insider.

This article was originally published on Pure Flix Insider. Visit Pure Flix for access to thousands of faith and family-friendly movies and TV shows. You can get a free trial here.