

Jesus Calls Us to Righteousness: 'Go and Sin No More'

Sin not only deceives us but it dulls our hearing from God. It also destroys our ability to exercise faith in God and receive anything from Him.

If sin were not harmful and destructive to each of us, Jesus would not have come to carry it to the cross, and save us from its consequences.

We each must understand our need to have a reverent fear of the Lord and in doing so, depart from every kind of evil that leads to sin. {eoa}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.