

Jewish-Led Organization Helps Make Christmas Merry for Arab Christians

The International Fellowship of Christians and Jews is bringing Christmas cheer to Arab Christians in East Jerusalem. In addition to a tree lighting at the Christian Quarter Elderly Club on Dec. 7, staff and volunteers are distributing food boxes to elderly and clothing cards to children while singing Christmas carols.

To witness a heartwarming reaction from one of East Jerusalem's Christians, check out the video here.