

John Bevere: No, Being Baptized in the Spirit Is Not the Same as Being Born Again

John Bevere breaks down Acts 2 in this video teaching on the Holy Spirit. When the Holy Spirit fills the Upper Room, Bevere says it's important to note two takeaways. First, he says, the Bible shows that baptism in the Spirit is clearly a different experience than being born again. He explains, "In every single one of these situations, except one, it is a separate experience from them being born again." For the second takeaway, watch the video.
