

John Bevere Prayed Every Morning, 'Use Me'—Then God Told Him Why That Was Wrong

For years, John Bevere would wake up every morning and pray for almost two hours. He would beg God to use him for His glory, to do great miracles and make God's name known. Then one day, Bevere says, "The Holy Spirit interrupted me. He said, 'Son, your prayers are off-target.'" Find out why.