

John Bevere: What Happens When People Use God's Gifts for Worldly Purposes

John Bevere says that while God gives everyone gifts, it's up to individuals to decide how they're going to use them. Some pursue eternal kingdom causes, and some seek temporary fame or success on earth. Bevere uses a landscaping metaphor to really explain his point. Watch it here.