

John Paul Jackson's Ominous California Storm Prophecy Manifesting

Read Time: 1 Minute 12 Seconds

California is seeing unprecedented weather. In the past, wildfires have raged in the Golden State, but the last two weeks have seen torrential rains that are triggering flash floods.

President Joe Biden has declared a state of emergency after what news reports call a "bomb cyclone." People are evacuating.

Could this deadly storm be John Paul Jackson's California prophecy from 2011 coming to pass right before our eyes?

 People are dead or missing in California as a parade of cyclones batters the state. A flash flood warning affecting 7.7 million people in the Los Angeles area was issued on Monday night.

The BBC reports winds are battering multi-million-dollar beach homes, sinkholes are swallowing up cars and over a dozen people have been killed after weeks of extreme storms.

When will it end? And did John Paul Jackson prophesy this?

Listen in to his prophetic words from 2011. {eoa}
