

Jonathan Cahn Reminds Believers This Is Not Our Permanent Home

“When [Abraham] came into the promised land, he didn’t have a house; he had a tent,” Jonathan Cahn explains. Abraham, the first Hebrew, was—essentially—a camper. But what does this mean for us as believers today?

In this short teaching video, Jonathan Cahn highlights the important meaning of Exodus 33:22 that can be lost in English translations.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.