

Joyce Meyer: The One Who Is Everything You Need

The Bible repeatedly tells us that God is our helper. The question is, do we really trust God to help us? It's easy to say that we trust Him, but when it comes to practically applying this truth—to leaning on the Holy Spirit to help us in every area of our lives—we often struggle to do it.

As born-again believers in Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit—God's Spirit—lives in our spirit. In John 16:7 (AMP), Jesus said that the Holy Spirit is our “Helper (Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthenener, Standby)” and that He wants “to be in close fellowship” with us.

It's so important for us to know that we can have a close, intimate relationship with the Holy Spirit ... that He will communicate with us. I went to church for many years and had no idea that I could overcome my problems and live with real peace and joy because the Holy Spirit lived in my spirit. It was life-changing for me when I got the revelation that He wanted to lead me in God's will for my life and He would enable me to do everything I needed to do.

The truth is if we really believe God is our helper and He's willing to help us no matter what situation we're in, then we have no reason to worry or get overwhelmed.

I'll let you in on another secret: You need to ask God for help because the Holy Spirit is not the type to barge into your life and take over. Has anyone ever tried to push their opinions or their agenda on you? They may or may not know what they're talking about, and they may not even be really interested in helping you do what needs to be done, but they sure have a lot to say about what you're doing wrong!

That's not what the Holy Spirit does. He knows the answer to every problem, and He will even help you get through each one. But He won't give you His advice unless you ask for it. In other words, the humble get the help.

Every Problem Matters to God

Jesus said in John 15:5 (NIV), "Apart from me you can do nothing." And that's so true. But did you know He's not holding out on you? God actually likes it when we ask for His help. And He not only wants to help us with our big problems, He also wants to help us with the little things in life. That's wonderful news because sometimes we allow the little things to get us frustrated and upset. It's good for us to pray often, "Help, Lord. Help me!"

In the Psalms, we frequently see King David going to God for help. For example, Psalm 40:13 says, "Be pleased to save me, Lord; come quickly, Lord, to help me."

Notice that David was not only bold enough to ask God for help, but he was also confident that God would answer his prayers. In Psalm 43:5 (AMP), David says, "Why, my soul, are you downcast? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Savior and my God."

You and I have so many opportunities to feel sad or discouraged and have a bad attitude, but God wants us to stay strong in Him, like David did. Those who do will eventually come out on top because there's no way the enemy can hold you back if you will trust God and keep your hope in Him.

Learn How to Trust Your Helper

It's comforting to know God will help you get through the hard times of life. His grace and strength will sustain you while you're waiting for your breakthrough. Isaiah 41:10 says He "will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand."

Even when you're tempted to think, It's not going to do me any good to pray after the way I've acted, don't let that stop you from asking for God's help. Because when you go to the Father in prayer, you don't go in your name—you go in the name of Jesus.

Hebrews 4:16 says we can “approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.” And Psalm 23:3 says, “He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake” (emphasis added).

When you're hurting, in trouble or waiting for answers in your life, you need to believe that your Helper, the Holy Spirit, is with you, and He wants to help you. Stay in close fellowship with Him and ask Him for the help you need. No matter what the circumstances may look like, believe He's working on your behalf. He is your “Comforter, Advocate, Intercessor—Counselor, Strengthener, Standby”—He's everything you need—and He's just waiting for you to ask.

Please note: The views and opinions expressed throughout this publication and/or website are those of the respective authors and do not necessarily reflect those of Joyce Meyer Ministries. {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.