

July Prophecy: God Is About to Fully Expose Your Destiny

Just a few nights ago, I was in corporate prayer and received this word from the Lord. It was just one of those moments where the Lord dropped a strong word into my Spirit and I believe it is going to help a lot of people.

The Lord showed me a vision, and in the vision, I was standing in front of just a handful of trees. The trees were gently swaying in the wind. Through the trees, I could just barely see a tiny glimpse of what I thought was my destiny and what was coming in the next season. As the trees moved back and forth I could barely see through the leaves. But I could tell this was part of my destiny.

Then suddenly a gentle, strong breeze started to blow around me and it blew all of the leaves off of the trees. Then I could see clearly my destiny before me. There was such clarity that was setting right before me. I was amazed at how clear and close it all was. Then the Lord spoke to me, "Destiny Exposed." My first thought was, exposed normally has a negative meaning. But then I looked up the true definition of exposed. Exposed means to make visible by uncovering something. Many times the connotation we have of the word exposed is when something someone has done wrong it becomes exposed. But exposure is not always a bad thing. The word exposed is a very powerful word. It means something that was once hidden becomes visible. So your destiny may have been mostly hidden in past seasons like in my vision with the trees. You may have only been able to see glimpses of it before. But there is a sudden moment coming where God will fully expose your destiny to you with great clarity.

The word "destiny" means "invincible necessity." The word "invincible" means it must happen and nothing can stop it. The word "necessity" means something that is by all means necessary. So your destiny is something that is unstoppable, it must happen and it is about to be exposed right before you!

Right after this I had another vision. In the vision I was inside of a house and I was looking out of a window. It was pouring rain outside, and the shutters kept opening and closing. When the shutters were open, I could see some of what was outside but it was raining so hard that I couldn't see very far. And the shutters kept opening and closing on the outside of the window. Then a gentle but strong breeze began to blow, and it blew the shutters right off the window. Then I could see more clearly out of the window. I walked closer to the window, and the rain blew away. Then I could see very clearly out of the window, and I could from a long distance in this field and at the end of the field there was a tree line and barn. I could see everything that was once unclear because of the rain and the shutters very clearly now.

After this vision, I was seeking the Lord about what He was trying to reveal. He showed me that the purpose of the first vision was to tell people that there are many gazing strongly and trying to see glimpses of their future and God is about to fully expose people's destiny. I do not feel that this will only be in July but for the rest of this calendar year. I felt strongly since before the beginning of 2018 that the first six months of this year would be a set-up for not just the last six months of the year but for many months to come.

Many will be brought out of wilderness seasons where they have been in a cave alone with God. Wilderness and cave seasons are important because those are the times that you develop a deep relationship with God but when you come out clarity comes. If you come out of a cave, even in the natural, you are able to see everything around you that you could not see before.

God is about to completely expose destiny to those who are looking to Him and the things of God. When the leaves were blown away I could see what was beyond the trees. When the shutters were blown off of the windows and the rain was blown away, I could see what was outside and for a long distance. God is about to give such clarity to His people to be able to see down the road of their destinies for a long time. God is sustaining His people for longevity. I feel strongly that this exposure is coming in July but that it is also coming for many months to come. {eoa}
