

Justin Bieber's Newest EP, 'Freedom,' Molds the Easter Message to Music

As Christians around the world celebrated the freedom found in salvation through Jesus' finished work on the cross during Easter, Justin Bieber released a surprise EP titled Freedom.

Fans were pleasantly shocked to receive new music from the Christian R&B artist, especially when Bieber had just released his latest full length gospel album, Justice, in March.

Bieber announced the EP with a simple Instagram message: "Freedom on all platforms."
