

Keep Doing What You Do

You are called to do what you do.

Not what they do.

When you stop doing what you do, you hinder your calling.

No one can do what you do, the way you do it.

That's why God called you to do what you do.

And when you do what you do, you are probably in the center of God's will.