

Keith and Kristyn Getty Release Music Video for 'Against the Tide'

Acclaimed recording artists Keith and Kristyn Getty have just released the official music video for "Consider the Stars," the theme song for the upcoming documentary motion picture Against the Tide: Finding God in an Age of Science. The film, an exploration into the evidence showing the complementary relationship between science and faith, will be in theaters for a special three-night-only Fathom Event on Nov. 19, 20 and 23.

The song, penned by Keith and Kristyn Getty and Fionán de Barra, is a contemplative lullaby, encouraging us to "consider the stars" and to not be afraid, as the creator of the universe promises to care for each of us (Ps. 8:3-4).

It is a call to be bold in our faith, knowing God will be with us as we stand strong against the tide of atheistic misinformation: "He who made all of this says, 'You're worth more than this.'"
