

Kim Walker-Smith Releases New Song 'More Than Enough' About God's Faithfulness

Outlining the faithfulness of Jesus, the song "More Than Enough" by Jesus Culture is a reminder to never worry about the future. God will always be right there with us. The lyrics say:

"Finally my eyes can see/ You've never abandoned me/ I'm held by the kindness of/ A Father who won't give up."

Kim Walker-Smith performed the song live, and she commented below the YouTube video that she helped write the song with her friends Jordan Frye and Lindsey Sweat. In a spontaneous ending to the song, Walker-Smith sings about how worry and fear can't overtake her because of Jesus.

Watch the entire video here.