Covenant Worship (Integrity Music)

As Covenant Church in northern Texas continues to grow, so does its output of live worship CDs. The latest recording, produced by Grammy-award winner Israel Houghton, features Covenant worship leaders David Binion, Nicole Binion, Colin Edge and Josh DuFrene with guest vocals from Houghton.

And true to the church's unique culture, Kingdom presents an array of blended sounds and styles sure to appeal to every ethnicity, age and even musical preference. More importantly, the album reflects and celebrates the diversity of God's people with a powerhouse of songwriting and music production. Given this project's powerful songs such as "Kingdom Come," "Let the Name of Jesus Reign" and "Your Kingdom Knows No End," Kingdom is sure to be sung in churches across the nation.
